Bread.
 The way it ought to be.

Great Harvest has been baking bread the way it ought to be from the beginning, and we still believe in our phenomenal bread-making process. We believe in using pure, simple ingredients. We bake everything from scratch. And we still fresh mill our 100% whole grain flour every day.

We believe in our elaborately long, traditional methods of bread making because it naturally develops an exquisite flavor and texture with time, instead of relying on the use of additives. Great Harvest bread is truly one-of-a-kind. It's simple. Handmade. Wholesome. Tasty. Bread. The way it ought to be!
